

Get noticed and promoted in your current firm

67% of people secured promotions after completing coaching with Emma.

“The right questions asked at the right time deliver the best answers. At a crossroads in my career, I needed someone to help me clarify my thinking and figure out my next steps. Emma was that guide and so much more. As my career coach, she helped me renew my purpose and bring out the best version of me at work. Most importantly to me, she was also a cheerleader, going beyond our coaching contract to encourage me at a critical moment. If you need someone in your corner, I'd highly recommend Emma. ”

Are your peers getting promoted but you're not?

Are you feeling demotivated and unsure about your future in your current firm?

Are you aware of the career paths available and know how to get the job you want?

Coaching with Emma will empower you to take control of your career and understand how to influence the career opportunities in your firm.

As a talent development partner for business leaders for more than two decades, Emma is uniquely placed to shine a light on the how, when and why some people are identified as high potential talent while others are not, and what you can do about it. Emma will help you identify the sponsors and key stakeholders that can affect your career, build trusted relationships with them and improve your chances of promotion.

Across a series of coaching sessions, Emma will help you map the steps for internal progression, identify any skill-gaps, and set you on the path to achieve your goal.

Coaching sessions will include*:

-  Building your network internally and gain visibility
-  Understanding your strengths and how to use them for maximum impact
-  Learning what attracts attention and how to get noticed
-  Communicating your career goals
-  Managing an internal job application process

After you've completed the Get Noticed and Promoted in Your Current Firm programme, you will have identified a desired career path and will be on track to achieve your goals. You will have gained awareness of how to build your presence internally and leverage your strengths to thrive and add value to your company's business.
